General Information about classes

Beginner 1 –This class introduces dogs and their handlers to the Sport of Agility. Our Beginner Class teaches the dog and handler how to perform all obstacles with safety and work short sequences. Whether your goal is to compete in agility trials or to just have fun with your dog this class will help you build a firm foundation. Dogs must be at least 6 months of age. Exceptions will be made if handler talks with instructors before signing up.

Beginner 2 – This class is for dogs that have completed Beginner 1 or the equivalent. Dogs and handlers will practice longer sequences and learn basic handling skills. Dogs must be at least 6 months of age. Dogs will not move out of this class until instructors feel they are ready.

Beginner 3 – This class is for dogs that have completed Beginner 2 or the equivalent. Dogs and handlers will practice longer sequences and learn basic handling skills. Dogs must be at least 6 months of age

Intermediate - For dogs who have completed Beginner classes and have not taken Intermediate or who cannot do all equipment at full height. You will practice maneuvers to help you prepare to compete in the Novice level of agility and familiarize you with ring etiquette as well as prepare you for Competition Dogs need to be able to work off lead and should be over one year old.

Competition Class - For dogs and handlers who have completed the Intermediate class and can do all equipment at full height with no hesitation including jumps and the dog must be at least one and a half years old and be able to work off lead and be under control. This class will continue what you have learned in Intermediate and continue to prepare you to compete in all levels of agility.
